

Board of Review Report to 2007 House of Delegates

John Witzel, Chair

During this past year, one matter reached a full hearing before a panel of three members of the Board of Review.

That panel came to a unanimous decision. The losing party submitted a request for a rehearing. That request was denied as there was notice and opportunity to be heard at the hearing and the decision was well reasoned, unanimous and emphatic.

There was no appeal.